

Welcome message for practices

For our patients recovering from the attacks at the mosques

Welcome to our practice. We hope you feel safe here.

As physiotherapists we want to help you with your recovery. You can expect that here you will be treated with respect and dignity. Together with you and your family we will work to maximize your recovery from your injuries.

Please let us know if you would like an interpreter with you for your treatments.