Material

- a) All advertising material shall be delivered to the Publisher without expense to the Publisher.
- b) Inserts are to be sent directly to the printer by the advertiser or advertising agency by courier for tracking purposes. Any losses fall to the advertiser or advertising agency.
- c) Any expenses incurred following copy deadline date in trying to secure material (e.g. toll calls, freight, couriers etc.) shall be recoverable from the Advertiser or Advertising Agency and shall be charged out as a disbursement (noncommission bearing).
- d) Where new copy or instructions to repeat have not been received from a contract Advertiser by copy deadline date the Publisher reserves the right to repeat any previously run copy, or to compose or enter substitute copy at the Publisher's absolute discretion and charge full rates plus production.
- e) Where advertising material is not supplied to the specifications required, or requires correction, Physiotherapy New Zealand reserves the right to charge the advertiser for all production costs involved in preparing the advertisement for print.

Rate changes

Physiotherapy New Zealand has the right to increase all or any advertising rates, subject to one month's notice for advertisers with forward bookings.

Terms

Accounts for advertising space and production are due for payment on the 20th of the month preceding the month of publication. If this date falls on a weekend or a holiday, payment is due by the closest working day before. Advertisers and their Advertising Agencies are jointly and severally liable for payments due under any contract. For the purposes of this clause the month of publication is the cover date of the publication. Any costs, fees, legal expenses or commissions incurred in obtaining payment are to be charged to the advertisers account.

Tax and levies

Any Government or industry taxes and/or levies are additional to the current rates structure shown on the Rate Card. GST (currently 15%) is payable on all payments from a New Zealand source and on such overseas advertising as may from time to time be deemed liable by the Inland Revenue Department.

General

- a) The Publisher reserves the right to decline the insertion of any advertisement.
- b) The placement of an advertisement is at the Publisher's discretion.
- c) Casual displacement, rejection or omission of an advertisement does not invalidate a space order.
- d) While every care is exercised, the Publisher will not accept liability for any loss whatsoever incurred through error either in the content of an advertisement, or the incorrect appearance of an advertisement.

Terms of acceptance of advertising copy

The Advertiser warrants and undertakes to the Publisher that no statement, representation or information contained in the supplied advertisement:

The advertisement must also:

- a) Be of value to Physiotherapy New Zealand members.
- b) In accordance with the Medicines Act 1981 sections 57-59.
  - a. In summary these sections state you cannot make a therapeutic claim in your advertisement unless you have consent or evidence to the standard a medicine requires for consent.
- c) Comply with the Advertising Standards Authority code of Ethics and Therapeutic and Health Advertising, including claiming to cure or relieve or manage something. The advertisement needs to be about offering the service and list suitable conditions in which physiotherapy may be helpful.

The Advertiser acknowledges that Physiotherapy New Zealand relies on the provisions of this Clause in accepting the advertisement for production. The Advertiser hereby agrees to indemnify Physiotherapy New Zealand against all losses or costs, legal or otherwise, arising as a result of the publication of the advertisement.
